CICADA SONG (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Cicadas appear every seventeen years in such quantity that they fill the skies and harmlessly pelt anything that moves. The town of Anderson celebrates the coming of these insects with a festival that they call Cicada Song. In 1987 a young boy named Jacob Ramsey fell for a girl named Sara, whose family was visiting for Cicada Song. Little did they realize, however, that their young love would end ten years later during the most shocking moment in Anderson s history. Time passes and the next Cicada Song begins. Self-published author Ellis Barnes is invited to Anderson as an attraction and there he meets the quick-witted but guarded Sara, now fully grown and quite lovely. He quickly falls for her but something from Sara s past prevents her from getting too close. Facing resistance from Jacob Ramsey s best friend, Stan, and the town drunk, Phil, Ellis is determined to uncover exactly what Sara s mysterious past is. What he finds will force Ellis to confront a faith-shattering tragedy from his own past, a tragedy that diminished his faith in the Christian church, but also one which might hold the key to overcoming Sara s private barriers. And what secret does Phil, the town drunk, hold regarding the moment that shattered Sara s life forever? Bradford Combs writes a love story full of mystery, suspense, and questions of faith that will stick with you long after its final page is turned.
