

Gospel Eldership: Equipping a New Generation of Servant Leaders

By Robert H. Thune

New Growth Press. Paperback. Condition: New. 144 pages. One way or another, leaders emerge in the life of every church. Most pastors want to be intentional about developing and shaping those leaders themselves, but they rarely have the time and resources to do it. So leaders spring up, often without deep roots in the gospel, and they struggle to guide the church. The biblical task of leading a church requires more than good management principles or sound theology. If the gospel truly is the power of God for salvation (Romans 1: 16) and is constantly bearing fruit and growing within us (Colossians 1: 6), then each elder must be strong in the gospel. That s the vision and the goal behind Gospel Eldership. Gospel Eldership combines theological training with spiritual formation in order to shape future leaders at the heart level. It walks future leaders through the biblical concept of servant leadership and the primacy of character before looking at the specific duties of elders. Gospel Eldership helps develop men who know their own heart idolatry and how the good news of the gospel applies to it and who have a sense of gospel fluency so that they can swiftly,...
