Vintage. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 416 pages. Dimensions: 7.9in. x 5.2in. x 1.1in. A New York Times Notable Book of the Year Full of insights, marvelously entertaining . . . haunting and beautifully written. --The New York Review of Books I lived in Athens, at the intersection of a prostitute and a saint. So begins Patricia Storaces astonishing memoir of her year in Greece. Mixing affection with detachment, rapture with clarity, this American poet perfectly evokes a country delicately balanced between East and West. Whether she is interpreting Hellenic dream books, pop songs, and soap operas, describing breathtakingly beautiful beaches and archaic villages, or braving the crush at a saints tomb, Storace, winner of the Whiting Award, rewards the reader with informed and sensual insights into Greeces soul. She sees how the countrys pride in its past coexists with profound doubts about its place in the modern world. She discovers a world in which past and present engage in a passionate dialogue. Stylish, funny, and erudite, Dinner with Persephone is travel writing elevated to a fine art--and the best book of its kind since Henry Millers The Colossus of Maroussi. Splendid. Storaces account of a year in Greece combines past and present, legend and fact, in an unusual and delightful whole. --Atlantic Monthly This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
