Excerpt: . upon it so far as to look upon this annual. income as a fund for an annual decrease of our debt; yet I do not look upon it as a certain income. Events may happen to swell this produce beyond the most sanguine calculation; and ii may also happen that a disappointment may take place upon subjects so complicated in their nature. The trade and wealth of the nation is too fluctuating to admit that any average can be taken. A sudden disaster may blast alhour hopes; and it may happen even that, without any disastrous event to this country, we may cut a poor figure for a year, or a number of years. I therefore do not take the liberty to make any other statement but what the committee have made, and would therefore read what the committee have said at the beguning of their report. For the reasoning stated by the committee, you (as much as they expect) have reason to conclude that this flourishing condition of our revenue will continue. We have nothing indeed to fear-. We may lay despondent thoughts aside. Every thing de-X Pelldfi upon the spirit of this house, and the resolution, the good mense, and the industry of the country, to put these things out oi all doubt. It was more than could be thought possible, that, within a single year, such a success would happen. But it is not confined to one year; ever since...
