At the end of this year only the Breast Cancer Task Force will continue as an active body advising the staff of this organ site program. On the other hand, the Board of Scientific Counselors will enlarge its responsibilities to cover the entire division. It will review the program annually, provide concept review on new projects and act as site visit team to intramural laboratories and branches. Senior staff review for relevance will be carried out as before by the Steering Committee consisting of nci personnel. The extramural research budget this year reached of which were in grant supported projects and in contracts (including this Division s share of the fcrc effort).
