Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Excerpt from Two Patriotic Pageants The two pageants contained in this book are the work of classes in the New jersey State Normal School at Trenton. In their preparation the school festival idea predominated. This means two things - first, that the work was made sub jective as far as possible, so that the emphasis was on the preparation rather than on the final per formance; and second, that the various departments of the school cooperated in making contributions to the work. For instance, when the Columbus cele bration was planned the classes in history studied that period, looked up sources, and then submitted their findings to the English classes, Where the plot was constructed and the words were written. Meanwhile the music department was training the school for the appropriate songs, the classes in domestic arts were planning and making the Cos tumes, art Classes were drawing posters, in the manual training rooms stage properties were being made, and in the gymnasium-dances Were devised and rehearsed, The reading and speaking depart ment coordinated the work and directed the produc.
