Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . An exciting journey into three mystical worlds where children become the teachers Nahu introduces his very detailed and enchanting children s book and comes up with a winner. In these stories, the land of make-believe and dreams become real. Each tale subtly introduces the Great Spirit that hallmarks this captivating and enthusiastically recommended book for all ages. Dolphina s World is set in the tiny village of Tapee, where the common belief is: Peace of mind brings true happiness. But Dolphina, a rare soul with olive skin and almond eyes is wise beyond her years and considered both teacher and mystic. When you read this magical tale, you will discover just how rare she really is as her mystical adventure unfolds once she leaves the familiar, into the unknown. She takes to the ocean shores and meets Tooka, a dolphin who helps her to discover total happiness. With total love and a sense of family, good prevails in this tale! You will be enchanted by the power of dreams in The Magic of the Moment as Rainsong learns to travel the universe in her sleep. She talks to frogs that share nuggets of wisdom with her to take into her waking life. This exciting tale can only ignite the imaginations and hearts of young children, as they too become dreamship travelers. The Girl Who Talked to Plants is an exciting tale about talking and listening to plant spirits. She inwardly understands her experiences to be an act of love from the plants even though grown-ups don t quite believe this is true. Whether deep in the sea, in a garden, or in our dreams the magic is always around us. -Erin...
