

Views of Baptism (Paperback)

By Frederick Baltz

Infinity Publishing (PA), United States, 2009. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Views of Baptism is written for a range of readers including the parent or sponsor about to baptize a child, the adult who wants to understand baptism more fully, and the professional teacher or preacher who needs the truth about baptism stated simply but backed by careful research. Views of Baptism explores three views of baptism: the individual-centered view, the means-of-grace view, and the Roman Catholic view. It includes a description of how Christian baptism came to us in stages from its Jewish roots. A question and answer section addresses specific matters often raised when people contemplate baptism.
