John Wiley and Sons Ltd, United States, 2000. Hardback. Condition: New. 1. Auflage. Language: English . This book usually ship within 10-15 business days and we will endeavor to dispatch orders quicker than this where possible. Brand New Book. How to decide when to say yes to a credit applicant-without jeopardizing your reputation or your company s bottom line Deciding whether a credit applicant is ultimately creditworthy involves more than just poring over their financial statements-it takes the kind of advice only an experienced credit expert, like Hal Schaeffer, can give. A 28-year veteran of the credit screening process, Schaeffer outlines the nuts-and-bolts of assessing a credit applicant s financial health and ability to make good on a line of credit. In part one s clear, four-part A, B, C, D format (A is for Analysis, B is for Building Essential Business Credit Information, C is for Considering All Factors,and D is for Decision), the author examines a prospective borrower from every angle, using formulas, checklists of what to look for, and available outside information sources (from Dun Bradstreet to the Internet) to get a genuine picture of an applicant s current finances and degree of credit risk. Also outlined are the financial, credit, and business factors that go into a sound business credit decision a guideline for consolidating facts to vindicate your decision, as well as a series of twelve chapter-length case studies (contained in part two). Discussion includes: Determining the cost and accuracy of financial information Isolating information gaps in financial records The actual costs (including total/partial loss of sale, insurance fees) and value (including future sales to the customer) to your company if credit is extended The exact nature of the sale-large (or small); one-time deal or continuous; the expected profit margin The controls your company has...
