Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Annual Reports of the Superintending School Committee Selectmen and Treasurer: Of the Town of Fitzwilliam, for the Year Ending March 1st, 1872 Fellow Citizens: - The Committee to whom has been entrusted the supervision of the Public Schools, in town, for the year ending March 12th, 1872. would submit the following brief Report: In presenting this, his fourth Annual Report of the condition, prosperity and progress of the Public Schools in town for the last year, your Committee takes great pleasure in stating to the citizens, that in no year since he has performed the duties incumbent on the office of School Committee, have the schools met with more uniform success, or achieved more satisfactory or praiseworthy results, than during the school year now ending. The parents, teachers and scholars in every district seem to have co-operated in most things pertaining to the general advancement of their several schools. Most of our teachers, though many of them are young and inexperienced, have proved themselves capable, efficient and devoted, thereby meeting the reasonable expectations of the parents, and securing the confidence and esteem of the scholars. Although our schools are deserving of much praise, yet we believe they are not without many defects. We would have our teachers impart knowledge in a more practical manner, thus enabling the pupil to obtain an education that will be of use to him in after years.
