Excerpt: .no less than seven qualities, in addition to an extra quality to meet special requirements. This arrangement---which applies to the entire home trade of Northampton, without any invidious class distinctions among the different firms in the town--certainly relieves the employer from much embarrassment. Nor, unless the information given to me by persons in a position to know the facts is incorrect, does it enable him to take advantage of his men by getting best work made at the price of thirds, or of seconds. The interests of the men are guarded by a tribunal upon which both employers and employees are represented, and which determines in case of doubt the category within which a boot ought in fairness to be placed, its decisions being assisted by reference to a sample showcase containing an assortment of boots classified according to quality. If a dispute arises between a master and his men as to the price to be paid upon a novel description of boot, the sample from which the men are to work is submitted to the Board of Conciliation, who, comparing it with the exemplars of the show-case, determine whether the boot is to be rated as seconds or firsts, according as it more nearly resembles the seconds or the firsts among the boots of a similar general character in the standard show-case. It will be seen that the Northampton statement introduces into the boot trade a principle which, in its adaptability to the...
