Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .What The F#k Happened takes a hard and unapologetic look into the voter s impression of the U.S. 2016 Presidential Elections. Previews of chapter writings: On the negative media reactions to Trump: I am not blinded to the negative portrayals of President Trump. But leaders of nations should not be held to the standards you would require from a priest or kindergarten teacher. They can be brash, they can be merciless, and can still be great leaders. In fact, history reflects that. President Monroe was notoriously profane and even once chased a secretary from the Oval Office with a pair of fire tongs. Margaret Thatcher was despised by the Labor Union for privatizing. General Patton, Charles de Gaulle, Andrew Jackson, Winston Churchill and Wu Zhao were not known for friendly and compassionate dispositions. Popularity has no correlation to leadership. On the WikiLeaks scandal: In a series of emails between Hillary Clinton and Sidney Blumenthal, ways to influence the Georgian elections were discussed, planned and put into action. Proof of U.S. taxpayer money used to prop up an anti-Russia candidate for their upcoming election had been floating around the internet for years. For reference, their puppet eventually lost. The irony that another scandal arose from Clinton and her friends inability to secure their cyber activities couldn t be missed. Her Benghazi disgrace wasn t even behind her yet, so honestly, a lot of reactions were a dull stupor; again? There was an important lesson to learn here, but Hillary Clinton and her camp refused to see it. In the Aesop fable, The Eagle and the Arrow, an eagle is soaring through the air when it hears the whizz of an arrow. Feeling a...
