Can they overcome their differences to find what matters most? Psychic Cara Thornton's biological clock may be ticking, but not fast enough to look twice at Cooper Cruz when he darkens her doorstep. Any man who shares DNA with her lying, cheating ex is automatically banned from her potential baby daddy sperm donor list. No way is she getting tangled in his mess, no matter how pretty his future offspring might be. In need of help, FBI Agent Cooper Cruz will do anything to find his sister. Even if that means swallowing his pride to ask for help from the one woman his brother cheated on. If her ability is true, she's the best chance he's got to lead him to his sister's location. Getting Cara to help should have been a piece of cake. He should have realized nothing about this woman would be easy. When Cara realizes that her sister's premonition is responsible for sending Coop's sister running, she relents and offers to work with him to find both missing women. Surviving a battle of wills, a hotel full of horny senior citizens, and Cara's meddling family are the least of their worries when danger is lurking in the shadows.
