

Pray Tell, Private Hell

By Steven Bartel

Drumbeat Press, United States, 2007. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 226 x 150 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .American Civil War poetry: private thoughts with a wry sense of humor from an everyman soldier during this momentous time in American history. Critical acclaim James McPherson, Pulitzer Prize winner, Battle Cry of Freedom: The Civil War Era: I read through [Private Hell s poems] with admiration for your muse and your insight into the life of a private soldier. I will keep them on my bookshelf and consult them from time to time when I wish to commune with the past. Steve Allen, Author, composer, playwright, TV icon: Fascinating . . . each of the poems is powerful and makes an important philosophical point. The book deserves wide attention. Charles Champlin, Arts Critic Emeritus, Los Angeles Times: [A] remarkable sheaf of poems . . . an original concept brought off most excellently well . . . so many are sardonically funny, and the more touching for their note of hard irony. Bertram Barnett, Interpretive Ranger, Gettysburg National Military Park, and expert on poetry in Civil War America: This collection of soldier-poems, narrated by the singular Pvt.,...
