BALANCE OF PASSION: HOW TO STOP PRETENDING AND GOING THROUGH THE MOTIONS OF MARRIAGE (PAPERBACK)

Outskirts Press, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Did you know that totally accepting your spouse is the best way for you to become a more complete and well-rounded individual? Have you ever wondered why you and your spouse seem to experience annoying short-circuits in your emotional connection at the worst possible times? Did you know there are effective tools that exist to help you and your spouse break through the seemingly impenetrable wall that every married couple inevitably hits? Well, Balance of Passion provides thorough answers to these and many other frequently asked questions about what it really takes to make a marriage work in the 21st century. Balance of Passion s ultimate purpose is to help spouses discover how to create and maintain the safe-haven marriages they have always desired. As you begin reading, one of the first amazing surprises you will discover is that your personality is meant to exude character traits from both of your parents instead of only one of them. You will also learn that your childhood emotional programming, received primarily from your parents, caregivers, close relatives and peers, has much to do with the various types of emotional interactions you have with your spouse on a daily basis. In the heart of Balance of Passion you will discover how the development and sharing of more authentic feelings between you and your spouse does great wonders in enhancing your ability to develop and sustain a strong emotional connection between the two of you. In the latter portion of this informative and insightful book you will be instructed on how to genuinely improve communication, achieve the difficult task of becoming a more forgiving spouse, do personal work to help make you a more loving...
