Introduction I am a 70-year-old black male who was born in Mississippi in 1941 to an 18-year-old unwed mother with one child. My parents were sharecroppers. I did not know my biological father until I was 15 years old. I grew up in dire poverty in the pre-Civil Rights south, chopping and picking cotton for ten hours a day, eight months of the year. I was a high school dropout and had my first child, out of wedlock, at the tender age of 17. One year later I married my beautiful 17-year-old childhood sweetheart and by age 26 I was the father of four children. By age 33, I had obtained a Bachelors and Masters degrees from the University of Wisconsin-Madison. I overcame my difficult beginnings to become the successful person I am today. This year, my wife Yvonne and I celebrated our 52nd anniversary. I live in a beautiful house, have a large collection of African-American art, photographs, and mementos, drive a luxury car, and am not without resources and material comforts. I am surrounded by treasured books by William Faulkner, James Baldwin, Richard Wright, Ralph Ellison, W. E. B. Dubois, Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. , Marcus Garvey, and numerous other authors who have written about the African-American experience in America. I am truly blessed with a rich network of friends going back to elementary school including my best friend, my loving wife Yvonne. I have four children, eight grandchildren, and three great grandchildren, all blessed with good health and sound...
