Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Four Scottish Coronations The august solemnity which, by God s good hand upon us, will be fulfilled on Thursday the 26th of June this year in the Abbey Church of Westminster - the Coronation of His Most Sacred Majesty King Edward VII., King by the Grace of God of all the Britains and of our Gracious Queen Alexandra - is of a nature that requires, both on the Sovereign s part and on his subjects, a serious and heedful preparation. Were it indeed no more than a court pageant, it would need to be prepared for. No ceremony of any kind can be well performed, which has not been duly arranged beforehand. And a Royal Coronation is a ceremony as complicated as it is rich and splendid. The vast and honourable assemblage must be duly marshalled: his proper place must be assigned to every one. The Thrones must be set, the pavements strewn with carpets, the Altar decked; the Regalia must be brought to the Abbey from the Tower; the oil for the Anointing and...
