It would startle any of the respectable ratepayers of the richer parishes to be informed of the number of summonses that are issued every quarter for the rates. they amount to upwards of 4,000 in the parish of George s-in-the-East alone. And, of course, many of the poor persons summonsed are unable to pay. The Poor Law And The Police Courts. For some time past monthly returns of the number of persons in receipt of relief in England and Wales have shown a decrease in comparison with the corresponding months of the previous year, but at length in December the scale has been turned, and whereas at the close of 1859 the number was 827,461, it was 835,129 at the close of 1860, an increase of 7,668, not far...
