

To Nurse Means To Nurture: The Need For Nurses To Comfort Their Patients

By Brian Gene Evans

CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 134 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.3in. This book is about the need for nurses to comfort their patients and the lack of their willingness to do so. This book shows proof from various resources concerning this issue that states that nurses are in fact required to comfort their patients according to various medical professionals and according to the authors of their nursing books as well as encyclopedias and other materials on the subject of nursing. My hope is that nurses will read this book and see their need to be wiling to comfort their patients and do so after they see how important it is that they do this for their patients. I hope this book can bring about nurse reform and bring back comfort to the care of patients in all doctors offices and hospitals and rehabilitation facilities. Please read this book and see the enlightening truth about comfort care in nursing. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
