By Anastasia Volnaya

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Maxim Zheltov (illustrator). Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Roses and fire - the book by the poet and prose writer Anastasia Volnaya. She had included works about love, belief and kindness. A series of aphorisms on everyday and philosophical subjects is separately presented. These poems and the essay allow to see the world around through a prism of love and heat, allow to feel God, to trust, become kinder, helping weak and needing. The author adheres to accent style of writing. Attaching great value to the arising images and feelings. It can be compared to a picture, but only given rise from words. Native language of the poet Russian. When translating some semantic inaccuracies connected with features of grammar are possible. Most precisely the poet will tell about verses: Verses - glass Through them you look Also you see that, that without glass It isn't allowed to see! Look at the world! In him God's Spirit!.
