Outskirts Press. Paperback. Condition: New. Dimensions: 8.5in. x 5.5in. x 0.4in. Each of us has the same amount of time: 1440 minutes in every day. What sets ultra-successful people apart from their less successful peers is how they use their time. As a lifelong entrepreneur, Randy Carver has always paid close attention to what sets ultra-successful people apart. In 1440, he describes eight traits that are common among super-achievers and twenty-two habits you can adopt to increase your own chances of personal and professional success. Whether you run a household, a small business, or a Fortune 100 corporation, you can benefit from the easy-to-implement wisdom you'll learn in 1440. Here is just a glimpse of what you'll learn: The importance of reining in your digital activity Ways to control your daily barrage of e-mail How to build an efficient, cost-effective team through virtual outsourcing Strategies for creating great experiences for others Tips for thinking like the ultra-successful This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
