

Deep Down in the Delta: Folktales and Poems (Paperback)

By Greg Alan Brownderville

Butler Centre for Arkansas Studies, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Revised ed.. Language: English . Brand New Book. In Deep Down in the Delta, a book like no other, tales and poems by award-winning writer Greg Alan Brownderville are paired with paintings by outsider artist Billy Moore to evoke the Arkansas Delta in unforgettable fashion. One of the most soulful, most mysterious regions in America comes to life in words and pictures. Reminiscent of Jean Toomer's Cane and Alice Rae Yelen's Passionate Visions of the American South, this book leads the reader into strange country where a buzzard the size of an airplane circles over buried Confederate treasure; an indestructible rabbit haunts a graveyard; a pool table dances across a juke joint; and a hoodoo woman treats a girl who flies around the house like a balloon losing air. The poems are folkloric, the tales poetic, and the paintings downright beautiful.
