GRACEWING, United Kingdom, 2008. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Practically everybody loves to travel; to discover something new. We want to escape, to be free, to feel the sun on our faces. So we venture forth to far away places. But whether we are package tourists, culture vultures or backpackers the questions can still arise: Is this really all there is? Is there nothing beyond what we can see - something MORE? Can we find space and time on our journey to find new realities? The outward journey can be the start of an inner journey. This book, superbly translated from the original Swedish, reflects on our modern obsession with travel whilst discussing existential questions. During his visits to Rome, Paris, Venice and the Canary Islands, the author depicts an inner journey. On the way we meet such diverse figures as the philosopher Seneca, the author Proust, Emperor Marcus Aurelius, and the Man in the corner , whose radical doubts question all kinds of pretentious talk. We click on computer icons - the world opens up. But the pocket icon is of a different sort. It speaks of another journey. At a time when many people feel confused and embarrassed by talk about spirituality, this book puts forward powerful ideas in an eminently readable style - but perhaps it poses more questions than it answers . A barely discernable, but serious and calm look stares at me from the cheap plastic Russian icon. The icon s reverse perspective means that the observer is always observed wherever he is. Or rather - the observer is drawn into the icon s world. The diminutive pictures faded colours: dark red, gold and pale blue light up my study. The icon watches over me whilst I...
