Holly s privileged boarding school life ended and her difficult initiation into adulthood began in Book One: The Stalking. In Book Two: The Revenge, Holly avenged betrayal by her first lover, Christopher, and discovered the shocking truth that her wealthy grandmother kept secret for so long. She was pulled into the deadly network of meth dealing and abuse in South Florida as she tried to save her brother from a drug habit. At the same time, she had to help her mother win a battle against breast cancer. Now, in The Revival, Holly is drawn into another life or death struggle, this time against a gang of sex traffickers led by a vicious kidnapper and pimp, who calls himself Major Tom. A new ally and lover, Dr. John Thomas, joins her effort to rescue Roxanne, a teen prostitute, from the clutches of the murderous Major Tom. To succeed, Holly must break all reliance on the adults in her family and establish relationships with new allies who can support her in her quest. Like all young women, she must also explore her body and mind as she works hard to acquire the knowledge, skills, and abilities needed to achieve a fair share of happiness.
