Implacable Foes: War in the Pacific, 1944-1945 (Hardback)

By Waldo H. Heinrichs, Marc Gallicchio

Oxford University Press, United Kingdom, 2017. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. On 8 May 1945, Victory in Europe Day-shortened to V.E. Day -brought with it the demise of Nazi Germany. But for the Allies, the war was only half-won. Exhausted but exuberant American soldiers, ready to return home, were sent to join the fighting in the Pacific, which by the spring and summer of 1945 had turned into a gruelling campaign of bloody attrition against an enemy determined to fight to the last man. Germany had surrendered unconditionally. The Japanese would clearly make the conditions of victory extraordinarily high. In the United States, Americans clamored for their troops to come home and for a return to a peacetime economy. Politics intruded upon military policy while a new and untested president struggled to strategize among a military command that was often mired in rivalry. The task of defeating the Japanese seemed nearly unsurmountable, even while plans to invade the home islands were being drawn. Army Chief of Staff General George C. Marshall warned of the toll that the agony of enduring battle would likely take. General Douglas MacArthur clashed with Marshall and Admiral Nimitz over the most..
