Catherine de Burre refuses an Anglican Dean, John Wednesday in marriage-unaware he has blackmailed her father for her hand. Her father s fate lies in her answer. Martello Sanchez a swordsman of exiled Charles Stuart the Second, encounters Catherine in the forest. He is determined to make her his own bride, sending her a secret code: the call of a raven. John Wednesday soon discovers that his fiancée has a lover-a mystery rival for her affections. Catherine discovers her father s treachery, his sin of siring another child; the housekeeper Clancy s own dark secrets and the truth regarding her mother s death. She must choose to save her father or elope with Martello? Pretty Catherine de Burre aged seventeen has lived a sheltered life, under the rule of her Puritan father, a pastor. Clancy Mortimer, the housekeeper has become a substitute mother to Catherine since the death of de Burre s wife, Cecilia whose remains lie, in the sanctuary of the de Burre house. Catherine spends much of her time...

Reviews

Good electronic book and useful one. It usually does not expense a lot of. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.
