Christian Focus Publications Ltd, United Kingdom, 2008. Hardback. Condition: New. Revised edition. Language: English . Brand New Book. Illustrated by Jeff Anderson The Duke s Daughter has come of age and to celebrate a grand ball has been arranged. All the eligible noblemen from far and near will be invited in order for the young woman to chose a suitable husband. But as the final preparations take place a beggar appears at the door and asks the Duke s Daughter to marry him. To everyone s surprise she agrees. The beggar leaves after promising to come back in a year s time to claim her as his bride. Neither her father s tears nor her friends pleas will persuade the young woman to marry another. Will the beggar return? Will the Duke s Daughter marry a beggar man? What will happen in a year s time - will there be a marriage or a broken heart? This is a classic story of love, but not romantic love. It is really a story of the love of Christ, written by one of last century s preachers.
