While referencing to the bible itself, the writer gives the readers an in depth analytic view of the word. This literary piece is spiritual and endowed with three soul touching messages. The first entitled Feeling the Pillars while referencing to the story of Samson found in Judges chapter 16 the writer focuses on the key verses 2526 and delivers a very encouraging message on remembering, reuniting, and the power of touch . By reaching out and feeling the pillars again we can tare down all of the calamity and everything that has exalted itself above our heads. The second message is entitled Send for me a David this biblical account can be found in I Samuel chapter 17, this message has a helpful section inside which elaborates on extra problems attached to the giant problem Goliath in our lives. It deals with battling the enemy. The quoted Hit him with the sling shot provides readers with a powerful word of encouragement. The writer says if you ve used prayer fasting to get you through your tribulations in the past hit him with that, use those stones that you ve been using to fight the enemy don t try to use another mans armor to fight your battles hit him with the slingshot. The third message is from the biblical account of Jacob and Laban the Neverdoer found in Genesis chapters 2930 a very good read, you ll love this one.
