H., August 20, 1901 The manufacture of palm-leaf hats must not be overlooked. Nearly all the young people engaged in this work, and in this way added much to the family income. For an active boy it was monotonous and disagreeable work, but with nimble fingers he could do his regular stint, and get some time for play. Later, in the early fifties, came shoe-binding for women and girls, and shoemaking for young men and boys. At that time, and for several years afterwards, there was a shoe-shop connected with nearly every house. Messrs. J. S. Blake became shoe manufacturers, as did the Dudleys of Candia village. Haverhill took the lead in this industry. Shoe stock, with soles cut out by pattern, was sent to the Shoe makers at their homes. Freighters made a business of taking the stock from the manufacturers at Haverhill, and returning the shoes. They brought the money to the shoemakers with a new lot...
