Within the walls of Music hall was gathered a patriotic host on the evening of November 20th, 1891. It was to witness the presentation by New Hampshire's pioneer Grand Army Post, Storer, No. One, of Portsmouth, of the portraits of General William Whipple and Admiral David Glasgow. Farragut to the city, for the respective new school buildings bearing the honored names of these distinguished heroes of different eras. It was treading the path to noble ends when these veterans of the late war conceived this idea, and the culmination of their desires in the exercises of Friday evening marked another epoch, so to speak, in the history of good deeds! for which this organization has always been noted, deeds such as have written tender poems on many hearts and whose acts will...
