

The National Humane Review Volume 7-8

By -

RareBooksClub. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 446 pages. Dimensions: 9.7in. x 7.4in. x 0.9in. This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text. Purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book (without typos) from the publisher. Not indexed. Not illustrated. 1919 edition. Excerpt: . . . at the morning meetings and Mrs. C. B. Kennedy at those in the afternoon. At night a lantern lecture was given at the War Camp Community Club. The audience was most gratifying, from the point of numbers. On the following day the Trenton Society promoted a Tag Day jointly for local work and for that of the American Red Star. It was a splendid success, workers being numerous and enthusiastic. The best stores in Trenton gave up valuable window space for Red Star poster displays and the mounted police did a big business in the sale of tags. Officer Thiel, in particular, was a clever salesman and his fine bay horse was made a great picture with the aid of Red Star decorations. Trenton has the women who are capable of developing a very big humane work. Lectures were given at Brighton, N. J. ,...

READ ONLINE
[2.95 MB]

Reviews

This composed book is fantastic. it absolutely was writtern quite properly and helpful. I am very happy to explain how this is the very best ebook i actually have read during my own existence and may be he best pdf for actually.

-- Prof. Elody D'Amore

This type of publication is every thing and taught me to searching ahead and more. It can be rally fascinating throgh reading through period of time. You can expect to like how the blogger write this pdf.

-- Dr. Jillian Champlin IV