The following series of questions by Count Sollohub of Russia, to which reference has already been made in the foregoing circular, embodies a profound philosophical study. Doubtless, there are points and leanings in the questions which will not carry all votes; but they are the production of a vigorous and enlightened mind; are highly suggestive; and will furnish abundant food for thought to those who contemplate a participation in the labors of the Congress. Questions Proposed In View Op The Approaching International Penitentiary Congress. 1. Do you consider it the aim of the Congress to secure, among civilized nations, a unanimous judgment on the most desirable legislative and administrative plan for the general management of prisons? 2. To avoid the loss of precious time, do you not think it desirable that the Congress engage neither in abstract discussions nor in studies relating to what is peculiar to each several country, but that it seek to come to an understanding on fundamental principles, on practical axioms, which every civilized State should henceforth have in view in the management of its prisons? 8. Do you not think that these axioms should be divided into: (a) General principles applicable to all countries; (6) Local considerations necessitating exceptional measures f 4. In determining principles, do you not consider it necessary to avoid confounding questions of detail with general questions, so as to avoid confusion in the discussions? 5. Do you not think that general questions are summarily...
